

POLICE FORCE,
(DETECTIVE BRANCH.)

391
14.6.16
Shanghai Municipal Council.

June 12th 1916.

Sir,

All the troops were paid on 10th inst.
The running of goods trains from Shanghai to Hangchow has been resumed.

It is reported that Deputy Military Governor Lu, Woosung, has sent a telegram to President Li Yuan Hung saying that the Kuomintang party in Shanghai are plotting against him and that General Yang is assisting it.

A later report says that General Yang has been instructed by the Central Government to report on the doings of the Kuomintang society in Shanghai.

It is reported that the Kuomintang party here are anxious to have Chen Chi Mei's coffin removed to the western lake, Hangchow where they intend to erect a mosoleum.

It is reported that an attempt has been made to poison Chou Ching Tsan 周金成 Taoyin of Shanghai. The Taoyin's second cook who is suspected of being concerned in the plot has run away.

It is reported that Admiral Li Ting Sung 李鼎新 who has been in seclusion since the Chao Ho incident, will resume his duties as an Admiral soon.

Two new newspapers have appeared in Shanghai to-day. One of them called "the New Republic" is said to have been started by Sun Yat Sen. It is published at No.14 Rue de Consulat. The other which is called Sing Tsoong Nga Pao 新中外報 has its office at No.417 Hankow Road and is said to be the property of Marshal Feng Kuo Chang.

Your Obedient Servant,

William Cunningham

Chief Detective Inspector.

Captain Superintendent of Police.
